

Nikanbashi Burger Bar Hotel at MyStays Kagoshima Tenmonkan Reopens

- Restaurant redesigned with “Satsuma Modern” motif
- Menu includes burgers, grilled dishes, along with local and global craft beers

KAGOSHIMA, Dec. 12, 2018 – Hotel MyStays Kagoshima Tenmonkan has reopened its Nikanbashi Burger Bar, renovating it with a “Satsuma Modern” motif. Operated by the hotel, the restaurant serves original burgers, grilled dishes, and craft beers.

Hotel MyStays Kagoshima Tenmonkan is located in the southern part of Japan’s Kyushu island. The region was a territory of the Shimazu Clan, spanning from the Kamakura period to the Edo period, and known as a land where people from all over the world interacted with the local culture. During its reign, it is said that the Shimazu Clan supported the work of many highly-talented individuals and bestowed them with special names. The restaurant’s namesake of “Nikanbashi” is derived from the name bestowed to famous Chinese doctor Chin Ikkan, who came to Kagoshima and served the Shimazu Clan.

Nikanbashi was well-known for his many contributions to Kagoshima, and his name was immortalized in three bridges—Ikkanbashi, Nikanbashi, and Sankanbashi—which are located near his old domicile. The name Nikanbashi was chosen as the new restaurant’s name in the hope that the restaurant can be a place for cross-cultural exchanges with people from overseas. With the location of Hotel MyStays Kagoshima Tenmonkan in Kagoshima’s city center, one goal of Nikanbashi Burger Bar is to act as a touchpoint to communicate the appeal of Kagoshima as well as Southern Kyushu, and contribute to local communities.

Nikanbashi Burger Bar's "Modern Satsuma" Design Motif Takes Diners Back in Time

At the end of the Tokugawa Shogunate, the Satsuma Domain was a bustling area with many industries new to Japan, including yarn spinning, steel production, glass making, and gas lighting. The facilities and plants for these industries were designed in the UK and were built using local materials by trained Japanese craftsmen. This rich history of Satsuma combined with the atmosphere of foreign countries combined with a modern taste make up the main design motif for the restaurant.

Dinner Service: 18:00 – 23:00 (last order for food: 22:00, last order for drinks: 22:30)

Formed in the shape of the majestic Sakurajima, Nikanbashi Burger Bar's original "Classic Beef Patty" (1,000 yen~) burger may be too big to be enjoyed alone. Several adults can share the burger together with juicy and spicy spare ribs (980 yen), grilled Angus beef on the bone (4,980 yen), and many other dishes. Carefully-selected ingredients from Kagoshima, other areas of Japan, and around the world are skillfully prepared by the hotel's chef into dishes with the delicious, attractive and satisfying.

Nikanbashi Burger Bar offers 6 different burgers: "Classic Beef Patty", "Cajun Spicy Patty and Cheese", "Texas Salsa Bacon and Cheese", "Teriyaki Burger", "Fried Fish and Curry Tartar", and "Double Cheese Burger".

Other menu items include attractive grilled plates and ala-carte dishes.
